

here's my old acting reel. i haven't updated it in a while because i have been pursuing other interests. but, i am always willing to do some more television and movie work. i've been told that i'm at the right age to play a grouchy dad with a heart of gold or maybe an eccentric scientist. if the show business industry should entertain any interest in my comeback, feel free to contact me. I will take your call.